NOTICE

This book is designed to assist you in understanding land use and planning law. It is necessarily general in nature and does not discuss all exceptions and variations to general rules. Also, it may not reflect the latest changes in the law. It is not intended as legal advice and should not be relied on to address legal problems. You should always consult an attorney for advice regarding your specific factual situation.

Contents

Standards Courts Apply in Reviewing Land Use Decisions 531

- Standard of Judicial Review of Legislative Decisions
 - The “arbitrary-and-capricious” standard of review • Individual legislator’s motives are irrelevant • The intent and purpose of the legislative body is relevant • Due process and fair hearing requirements
- Standard of Judicial Review of Administrative Decisions
 - “Excess of jurisdiction” • “Fair hearing” • “Proceeding in the manner required by law” • “Supported by the findings and evidence”
- Standard of Judicial Review of Agency Decisions with Both Legislative and Administrative Aspects
- Standard of Judicial Review of an Aspect of an Agency Decision That Interprets or Applies Law

Deadlines for Bringing Actions 539

- How to Find the Applicable Statute of Limitations

Process of a Mandate Proceeding 545

- Prerequisite to Litigation: Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies
 - The common law exhaustion doctrine • The exhaustion requirement has two components • Issue exhaustion • Appeal exhaustion • Rehearing/Reconsideration • Exceptions to the exhaustion requirement • Codification of the exhaustion requirement
- Identifying the Proper Parties
 - Petitioner • Beneficial interest • Citizen’s action • Taxpayer suits • Respondent • Real party in interest
- Joining Other Causes of Action with a Writ Claim
- Preparation of the Record
- Discovery and Evidence Outside the Record
 - Evidence outside the record generally is inadmissible and undiscoverable to determine whether a local agency’s decision is valid • Evidence outside the record regarding issues other than the validity of a local agency’s decision generally is admissible and discoverable • Evidence outside the record may be admissible in traditional mandate proceedings that challenge ministerial acts • Evidence regarding the decisionmaker’s thought processes is not admissible or discoverable • Judicial notice of matters outside the record

- Setting a Briefing and Hearing Schedule
 - Alternative writ • Noticed motion • Informal means of obtaining hearing date
- Summary Judgment
- Preparing the Briefs
- A Stay or Preliminary Injunction May Issue Pending a Final Decision on the Writ Petition
 - Stays • TROs and preliminary injunctions
- Issuance of the Writ
- Appeal in a Writ of Mandate Case
 - Time to appeal • Effect of appeal on judgment • Administrative mandate • Traditional mandate • Injunction

Litigation Under CEQA 568

- Special Procedures for CEQA Actions
- Contents of a CEQA Record
 - Presenting comments to the local agency
- Standard of Judicial Review of CEQA Decisions
- Remedies in a CEQA Case

Litigation Under the Mitigation Fee Act 573

- Challenge to Imposition of Fees on a Development Project
- Challenge to Enactment or Increase of Certain Fees
- Remedy

The Anti-SLAPP Statute 579

- Application of the Anti-SLAPP Statute to the Land Use Context
 - CEQA issues have also been addressed in SLAPP decisions

Attorneys’ Fees in Land Use Cases 580
